

McArthur Richard Sr. (1961-) is an African American entrepreneur, philanthropist and a human rights activist from Liberty City. Some say McArthur is a courageous advocate for the rights of blacks in Liberty City.

McArthur was born at Jackson Hospital to the late McDaniel and Gloria Richard. In 1979, McArthur attended Miami Northwestern Senior High where he was a 3-year starter on the baseball team and 1-year starter on the football team. In 1986, McArthur married his high school sweetheart Loretta “Daniels” Richard and became a father of 5 with 3 grand kids.

While in prison, McArthur received his GED, he also received CDL training from Key Power and a certificate in developing small business. He is the founding member of “the Real Team” which means Read, educate, Athletes 4 Life with the late Michael “MichealDoo” Wright. McArthur love for his community lead him to create the nonprofit the MAC (Making a Change) foundation, an organization dedicated to combating gang violence in the inner city.

By December 2017, McArthur became an at large member of the Circle of Brotherhood, a member of The Throwbacks who gives scholarships, toys and computers to the children in the Pork n beans projects. McArthur is also the CEO of BIG World Enterprise LLC. A Demolition and Hauling company, and he continues to be an advocate for black self-determination.
