

George Dana Jackson also known as CHICKENGEORGE THE COMEDIAN was born January 30th to George Jackson and Gloria D. Jackson. George was born and raised in Miami Florida in the south of Richmond Heights, Florida. George attended Miami Killian Senior and was a member of the C/O 89'. This is where his platform for comedy started. He was known to perform anywhere, classrooms and pep-rallies, you name the place, and he had the jokes. George was labeled by his class as "Most Likely to Tell Jokes". Little did they know, they were speaking a major call on his life and he walks greatly in causing laughter to be heard everywhere he goes. To this day, he is still considered to be the life of any party, doing weddings, parties, bar mitzvahs, and he'll even do funerals if you're glad that their gone.

After high school George worked several occupational positions to meet his overall goal of providing for his family. George is the proud father of 7 Children (4 boys 3 girls) and looking to add to that crew with his beautiful wife Dr. LaVenita M. Jackson. George is a faithful member of Upper Room Ministries of Miami Gardens. Under the tutelage of Superintendent, Elder Marc Cooper and Evangelist, First Lady Joy Cooper. George is not your typical stand-up comedian who delivers punchline jokes, but he will come out the bag on you. George wants people to know that he is not a Christian comedian, but he is a Christian that just happens to be a comedian. George has been gifted by God to do comedy. George also, has a passion for a community activist were in 2017 George was introduced to the Circle of Brotherhood by his good friend Anthony Durden. It has always been a desire of George's to give back to a community and others.
